White is the colour for the festal periods from Christmas Eve to thefestival of Epiphany, from Easter day to the eve of Pentecost, and forTrinity Sunday. It is also used for marriages, thanksgiving services,harvest festivals, the feast of dedication of a church and for feasts commemorating saints. White is suitable for baptism, confirmation andordination, though red may be preferred.

Red is used on the feast of Pentecost, and during the week betweenPentecost and Trinity Sunday. It is used on All Saints' day and for the feasts of those saints venerated as martyrs. It is appropriate for any service which focuses on the gift of theHoly Spirit, and is therefore suitable for baptism, confirmation andordination.

Purple is the colour for Advent season and Lenten season and is therefore used from the first Sunday in Advent to the fourth Sunday inAdvent; from Ash Wednesday until Holy Saturday. However, whitemay be preferred at holy communion service on Maundy Thursday.

Purple is recommended for funerals and for the commemoration of the faithful departed, although either black or white may also be used. White is preferred at the funeral of a child.

Green is the colour for ordinary Sundays. It is used between Epiphany and Ash Wednesday, and between Trinity Sunday and Advent Sunday.

Orange / Saffron CSI Episcopacy has instituted Orange/Saffron Handbands and stolls for its Bishops. Orange is colour of India & it is on the top of the Indian Flag symbolizing Indian spirituality of Prayer, Meditation, Sacrifice, Selflessness and Commitment.
